In Order of Protection cases, the Sheriff in the county where Respondent resides will serve Respondent with copies of your forms and notice of the court date without charge.
If Respondent does not live in the same county or state where the case was filed, call the Sheriff in that county or state to find out:

- If it is the correct Sheriff's Department for the address where you want Respondent served;
- The number of copies of the Summons and forms to bring or send.
